RE: US Airways, Inc. v. Sabre Holdings Corp., et al.,
No. 1:11-cv-02725, Sabre's Response to the Court's
April 11, 2022 Order

Dear Judge Schofield:

In connection with the Court's order dated April 11, 2022 (ECF No. 1165) (the "April 11 Order") and in anticipation of the April 19, 2022 Final Pretrial Conference, Sabre writes to clarify positions related to some of the exhibits identified in USAir's April 14 letter.

USAir identified DX-408 as an exemplar, but that document had been dropped from Sabre's Third Amended Exhibit list the evening prior, so there is no longer any dispute as to that document. With regard to DX-186, as Sabre explained in its April 14 letter, it does not intend to offer DX-186 unless USAir puts its subjective state of mind at issue. Additionally, Sabre intends to drop from its exhibit list the following exhibits that were identified by USAir: DX-428 and DX-3548. But Sabre continues to press for the admission of DX-1326.

Sabre hopes that raising the above items to the Court in advance of the Pretrial Conference will limit the disputes presented to the Court.

Hon. Judge Schofield
